

Aeon | Frequently Asked Questions

LOCATION

Where is the show?

The performance will be held in the vicinity of Sydney Park. You will be sent the starting location by text message on the morning of the performance.

How do I get there?

We recommend catching the train to St Peters and walking to your starting location, or parking your bike or car around St Peters and the top end of King Street.

It's 2pm on the day and I haven't received my starting location. What should I do?

Don't worry! Just call Performance Space on 02 8571 9111 and you will receive your location by email.

I have an international phone number, can I still receive my text message?

No, unfortunately we can only accept Australian mobiles (with the prefix +61 or 04). We recommend providing an Australian mobile, or contacting Performance Space on 02 8571 9111 to arrange to receive your start location over the phone or by email.

Does the show end back at the starting location?

No. The performance will finish in the vicinity of St Peters station, near the top end of King Street.

I have other Liveworks shows to attend after Aeon. What should I do?

We recommend catching the train from St Peters to Redfern and walking back to Carriageworks. All other Liveworks shows take place at Carriageworks.

WHAT TO EXPECT

What should I wear?

You'll be walking outdoors. We recommend comfy shoes, clothing you can move in, a hat and sunscreen.

It's raining. What do I do?

The show will go ahead, but bring some wet weather gear. If it gets really stormy, we will need to cancel the performance. We will contact you if this happens.

It's super hot. What do I do?

Bring sunscreen, a hat and a water bottle. The show involves roughly an hour of slow walking.

I have additional mobility requirements (for example, a wheelchair). Can I attend this production?

Please get in contact with Performance Space to let them know your access needs so we can ensure the best experience for you.

I'm sensitive to loud noise. Can I attend this production?

There is a section of loud sound in the performance. Earplugs are provided, but please get in contact with Performance Space prior to the event to discuss your needs.
